

I read in the Washington Post how Sinclair will be pre-empting it's regular programming to air an anti-Kerry documentary. This reflects clear bias and manipulation by this Broadcaster and is clearly not in the public service. FCC needs to exercise it's powers to penalize Sinclair for such abuse.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
